

I am writing in regards to Sinclair Broadcasting, a company that plans to use its' advantage as a powerful media network to sway the campaign by airing the documentary "Stolen Honor."

Although as a country we respect the right to public opinion, stations that use airwaves free of charge, by law, must serve the public interest. "Stolen Honor" candors to the right-wing party, and thus, is harmful to the democracy that our laws attempt to uphold. If the a forementioned documentary is shown, a pro-Kerry program, such as "Going Upriver" should be played in conjunction.

Thank you,
Kristin McKennon